

LIST OF FIGURES

Figure 1. Joseph Henry.....	39
Figure 2. Increase Lapham .....	40
Figure 3. Cleveland Abbe.....	41
Figure 4. February 9, 1870 Joint Congressional Resolution creating the nation's first weather service .....	43
Figure 5. Albert Myer, founding father of the weather service .....	45
Figure 6. Signal flags, a Myer legacy. Scanned plate from the 1914 People's Cyclopaedia , Syndicate Publishing Co., New York.....	47
Figure 7. Madison, Wisconsin Weather Bureau urban kiosk. Photo from postcard, postmarked 4 November 1914.....	50
Figure 8. U. S. Weather Bureau Brochure announcing VHF boaters' broadcasts in the Chicago area, courtesy of the NOAA Library in Silver Spring, MD. ....	58
Figure 9. Inside page of Chicago brochure .....	59
Figure 10. Growth of the program: transmitter locations in 1970 and 1979 respectively, taken from Dept. of Commerce Weather Radio promotional brochures .....	73
Figure 11. Two 1995 Mark Trail comic strips, ©North American Syndicate, Inc., courtesy of Jack Elrod.....	90
Figure 12. Weather Radio transmitter site on Pea Ridge near Ft. Payne, AL, dedicated a few months after the Piedmont, AL tornado disaster. Photo courtesy of Ed Cameron, Rural Utilities Service, USDA.....	93
Figure 13. Map showing current coverage of NOAA Weather Radio transmitters in the contiguous U.S.....	94